

Platform news - December

Hi!

We hope that the new Help Centre has started to answer many of your questions and has a place in your work routines. In version 5.18, the Help Centre will be even more accessible. The update will be live from 14 December.

Best regards,
Doctrin Team

News

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the Doctrin platform. The 'Help' tab is selected, and a dropdown menu is visible. The dropdown menu contains the following items:

- Search in Help Centre
- Retrieve debug code
- Doctrin Team is a service from Doctrin Team. All data is transferred encrypted and processed in accordance with the Patient Data Act and GDPR. The technical platform is owned and operated by Doctrin AB (559060-1877), Stockholm, Sweden.

Other visible elements in the interface include 'Testing video equipment', 'History', 'View sendouts', and the user profile 'Adjani Gerard'.

Access the Help Centre directly in the platform

Doctrin's Help Centre is now available in the platform, under the 'Help' tab in the menu. In the Help Centre you will find information about all of the platform's functions, how they work and how they can be used.
